

That it appears to your Committee, there remained in the Treasury on the said 9th March, 1843, the balance of seventy-two thousand six hundred and fifteen dollars and sixty-five cents and this sum they find, he paid duly, to his successor James S. Owens, Esq.

Your Committee further report, that they have also examined the proceedings and documents of the said Treasurer for the same time, in reference to the Free School's Fund and the Sinking Fund, and they find from an account settled by the Committee of Claims of the last General Assembly, to 1st Dec. 1842, that there then remained in the Treasury to the credit of the Free School's Fund, a balance of thirty-six thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight dollars and ninety-six cents cash.

That it appears to your Committee by the accounts of the said Treasurer, that he received from the said 1st Dec. 1842 to the 9th March, 1843, inclusive, twenty-one thousand five hundred and eight dollars and seventy-four cents, viz:

On account of
The Free School's Fund,.....	$20,379 18
The Sinking Fund,.....	1,129 56
	<hr/>
	$21,508 74

That it appears to your Committee, the said Treasurer disbursed in the same time, the sum of thirty-eight thousand and sixteen dollars and seventy-five cents, viz:

On account of
The Free School's Fund,.....	$37,412 34
The Sinking Fund,.....	604 41
	<hr/>
	$38,016 75

And for all these payments too, he has presented to your Committee, satisfactory vouchers and receipts.

That it appears to your Committee, there remained in the Treasury on the said 9th March, 1843, to the credit of the said funds as particularly set forth in the accompanying account current, a balance of twenty thousand four hundred and fifty dollars and ninety-five cents cash—and this sum too they find, he duly paid over to his successor James S. Owens, Esq.

All which is respectfully submitted,

By Order,

J. W. RIDER, Clerk.
